

M. Sc. Tjaša Štrukelj

M. Sc. Tjaša Štrukelj is a senior lecturer for Enterprise Policy, Strategic Management, Enterprise Culture, Enterprise Ethics, Social Responsibility, and SMEs management at the University of Maribor, Faculty of Economics and Business, Department of Strategic Management and Enterprise Policy, Maribor, Slovenia. Her postgraduate education includes titles Master of Science (of University Maribor, Slovenia) and KMU – Diplom HSG (SME Intensive Study Program of University St. Gallen, Switzerland). She prepares doctoral thesis (dissertation) on subject Dialectical System of Viewpoints for Innovating of Governance and Management of a Transitional Enterprise and publishes in field of her research. She is (co)author of articles in in several monographs, (inter)national journals and conferences (<http://www.cobiss.si/>). She does also confidential clerk work, advisory work in business praxis, is a coeditor of series of professional monographs Contemporary Business and economics, Slovenia (2011-), is a member of editorial board of MER Journal for Management and Development, Slovenia (1999-), a member of SME Intensive Study Program Graduate Association of University St. Gallen, Switzerland (1998-), a member of IMTA – International Management Teachers Academy Alumni Association of IEDC – Bled School of Management, Slovenia (of CEEMAN – Central and East European Management Development Association) (2006-), a member of IRDO – Institute for Development of Social Responsibility, Slovenia (2009-), and a member of Emerald Literati Network, United Kingdom (2010-).