

Tamara Gornjak, graduate in law, President of Advans Association

Graduated in law at the Faculty of Law Maribor in 2010 and finished judicial internship in Higher Court of Maribor in 2012. The same year she started working in the field of social inclusion of vulnerable groups, during which time, she participated as a volunteer in a local project that provided computer courses for elderly free of charge. Since that, she has been involved in research of digital literacy and e-inclusion of elderly, which led to the establishment of Advans Association in 2013, which she also co-founded and taken the role of the President. She currently manages organization on a voluntary basis.