

Aleksandra Gradišek

B.A., economics, at Faculty of Economics and Business University in Maribor. Managing the Development centre of the Heart of Slovenia since 2000. The trademark The Heart of Slovenia, which intertwines entrepreneurship with tourism and sustainable development of the environment, was established under her leadership through partnering of municipalities. Development Centre of the Heart of Slovenia has so far been involved in 20 European projects from 11 different programmes, cooperating with over 160 partners from 28 different European countries. Regional programmes Development partnership of the centre of Slovenia and Local action group (LAG) the Heart of Slovenia are coordinated by Development Centre of the Heart of Slovenia. Aleksandra is also the initiator of the Rural Development Cooperative Jarina and the Development Foundation Courage.