

Sabina Kojc, univ. dipl. med. komun.

Sabina Kojc je univerzitetna diplomirana medijska komunikologinja. Od leta 2006 je delovala kot prostovoljka v Slovenskem društvu za celiakijo, od leta 2007 do 2009 je bila predsednica mladinske sekcije SDC. 3 leta je kot študentka opravljala delo na klipping agenciji, 2 leti pa v prodajnem oddelku podjetja, ki se ukvarja s finančnimi storitvami. Od leta 2009 je prostovoljno sodelovala v Inštitutu IRDO, leta 2013 se je v Inštitutu IRDO tudi zaposlila, pokrivala je področje odnosov z javnostmi, novinarstva, prijav na razpise, aktivno je sodelovala v študiji družbenih učinkov socialnih podjetij, ipd. Sodelovala je pri organizaciji mednarodnih konferenc DOIČ 2011, 2012, 2013 in 2014 kjer je tudi sodelovala kot sourednica zbornika. Trenutno je zaposlena na podjetju Medis-M d.o.o. v oddelku marketinga.

Sabina Kojc, Bachelor of Media communication.

Since 2006 she has worked as a volunteer in the Slovenian Society for celiac disease, from 2007 to 2009 was president of the youth section of the society. She worked as a student at clipping agency for 3 years and in the sales department of a financial company for two years. Since 2009, she voluntarily participated in the Institute IRDO, and was employed at the institute in 2013, covering the field of public relations, journalism, tender applying, she also actively participated in the study of the social effects of social enterprises, etc. She has participated in the organization of international conferences DOIČ 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014 where she also worked as a co-editor of the conference proceedings. Currently she works in the marketing department of Medis-M d.o.o. company.