

Rasto Ovin, PhD, Full Professor

Graduated as PhD in Economics at the University of Belgrade (1986), from 1976 to 2014 teaching and research at the University of Maribor, since October 2014 at the DOBA faculty – Business school, Maribor. Fields of interest developed in the course of time: international productivity comparisons, econometric analysis of the Yugoslav economy, transition and constitutional theory, Cross-Border Mergers & Acquisitions. Has published over 600 units. On the national level established as a commentator of economic developments in diverse media. Up to now held different positions: Vice Dean, Dean of faculty, Vice Rector of the University of Maribor, since 2014 Dean of the Faculty. Held top positions in the national bodies (National coordinator research in economics and business, Vice president of the Fiscal council of the Government of Slovenia, Vice president of the Supervisory board of the biggest Slovenian bank- Nova Ljubljanska banka).