

Silvana Šonc, MA, General Manager

Graduated as Master in Social Welfare at the University of Maribor (1997), and is employed at the Hospital of Sežana since 1998. She has been a lecturer in Management and Social Welfare, and most recently a senior lecturer at the University of Primorska. Currently, she is working on project management and research in the field of quality of life for patients involved in rehabilitation programs at the hospital. She is also active in the researching - rehabilitation and diseases of Chronic Pulmonary patients. She is managing and actively participating in cross-border cooperation projects and leading a group to prepare the project for geriatric rehabilitation.