

Stanka Stegne

B.A. in preschool education from the Faculty of Education at University of Maribor. 2003, paper presentation at the international scientific symposium The Gifted - an Exploited or Neglected Potential, Novo Mesto and in 2004 at the scientific symposium A Child in Motion, Kranjska gora. One of the reviewers of the translated publication Primeri dejavnosti za dojenčke in malčke (Learning activities for infants and toddlers), published by Educational Research Institute Ljubljana in 2009. Multiplier for training of educational professionals in the field of reflection and self-evaluation. Team leader in the Network of Learning Schools (Mreža učečih se šol/vrtcev) programme and implementer of workshops for educational professionals. Civic education, climate for successful work, cooperation with parents. Internal auditor in the educational model Quality for Future Education (Kakovost za prihodnost vzgoje in izobraževanja), organized by the Slovenian Institute of Quality and Metrology SIQ. Project leader of the Circular Learning Trail for Preschool Children (Krožna učna pot za predšolske otroke) project. Head teacher's assistant since 2002.